Dear Braveheart,

Please Make Sure You Read This

This Council of Love Global Gathering, Beyond the Horizon, is huge – 24 years, and centuries in the making. After everything that has transpired over the past couple of years, it feels like an enormous blessing to come together heart to heart to heart in unity and community. It’s time – it’s past time! And it’s time to anchor in the Divine Mother’s New Time.

We come together as Nova Gaians to honor our mothers, the Divine Mother and our sacred earth mother, Terra Gaia, Archangel Gi’Anna. We will do this laughing and virtually hugging, dancing, singing and in blessed ceremony, love and sharing. This is our family reunion! Thank you for coming.

This is a huge step forward for all of us, re-declaring our role as keepers and stewards of Earth, as the literal Fulfillment of the Promise. This is us stepping forward and co-creating the next chapter of what it means to be human upon Gaia. We have and are claiming our ascended creator self, and we are ready – we were born ready, we just didn’t always know it!

In so many ways, this feels like our subtle or conscious responses to Universal Mother Mary’s gift to us at the 2005 Sedona Gathering of our being entrusted with the renewed stewardship of Earth. This role has been entrusted to us because we have grown, we have anchored, we have learned to create and co-create. It is an acknowledgment from the Divine that we are ready to assume this mantle of responsibility to repair, heal, protect and polish this incredible planet that we have been allowed to inhabit. It is also our acknowledgment as humans of our role in the devastation that has been wrecked upon Gaia. It is our acknowledgment of the honor that we are blessed with in sharing co-habitation of the planet equally with all kingdoms and all 12 dimensions available to us in this third reality. It is a gift that was made possible through the opening and anchoring of the Nova Grid of humanity.

So welcome, and thank you for stepping forward, for being ready and willing to travel and anchor Beyond the Horizon. Thank you for declaring yourself as your New You who is ready to embrace the next adventure. To, in form, be the re-patterner of Gaia and humanity. To re-anchor what it means to be human, angel, hybrid, earth-keeper in form – in sacred relationship with yourself, the Divine, your beloveds and all upon the planet. We are building not only Nova Earth but what it means to truly be in unity and community. This is unity consciousness.

You began, my dear friend, to work with the warp and weave of the Mother’s tapestry years ago, even if you weren’t consciously aware of it. And, as soon as you made the decision to join this global heart gathering new attunements and elevation in your frequency began. Are you feeling it?

To get you started we have chosen specific material to work with these frequencies. They are posted on the Beyond the Horizon Forum and are:

- What is the 13th Octave
- Chakra Clearing & Guide Book
- What are the Cities of Light

The energies we are working with and bringing forward are intense. Don’t forget during all this preparation we are still surfing the waves of completion and new beginnings. Is there much going on? Yes! We have asked, prayed, and demanded this opening of the Council – and we are so ready!

Don’t spend one moment being concerned about whether you know or have tuned in enough to this or that to be ready. Universal Mother Mary has beckoned to you. If you have opened your heart and said “yes,” then you are ready. Also remember, not only I, but a whole team is working with and on you as we prepare to take this quantum leap together.

This workshop is a gathering of masters, including each of us and our newly certified Council of Love Teachers and SpiritLife Coaches. It's so exciting to have our COLTs stepping forward to share their insight, experience, and wisdom on what works and what doesn't. We join together as one circle, in safety, support and in anticipation to travel together to Beyond the Horizon.

The overall themes of this year's gathering are broad and include creation work, balance and the practical application of the many COL spirit tools and so much more. Take time to review the agenda and presentations and decide what truly speaks to your heart. And then of course be prepared to pivot at the last minute. Remember the good news is all the sessions are recorded so you won't miss a thing!

Working with this level of intensity can be a little tiring – yes even on a virtual stage. We have created spaces where you will have time to breathe, relax and enjoy the company, seen and unseen. Another benefit of all the sessions being available to you indefinitely after the workshop is completed. So, if you need to pause, anchor, soar, do so – we'll be right there in the ethers waiting for you!

Make sure you have water right by you, and that you are wearing comfy clothes. Kleenex is a must... Make sure you have privacy and the ability to get up and stretch, even jump as some of the presentations will have you moving – yes even at home!

The agenda is also posted on the Forum. You will want to have a browser tab open with all the links for each session readily available – leave that tab open!

If you have any questions in the meantime, please contact us either on the Forum or at admin@counciloflove.com. Access the Beyond the Horizon Forum, which was created expressly to share insights and information. The ground team and I are counting the days, and everybody is busy at work creating a great workshop.

In Love and Laughter Forever,

Linda for the entire Council of Love

My Personal Welcome

Dear Angel Heart,
I am so glad you accepted The Council’s invitation and are coming to travel with us to Beyond the Horizon. You, my friend, are part of my beloved soul family, so the fact that you not only choose to claim your ascended self but also choose to join with our circle to celebrate touches my heart and soul. Thank you – it’s a bigger choice than any of us imagine. Universal Mother Mary, Archangel Gabrielle, Jesus Sananda, and the entire Council have worked purposefully with us all year preparing us to accept, allow and be in this new expanded space within the Mother’s New Normal.

LINDA DILLON
Founder and Channel for the COL

Our beloved friends have woven their energies with ours – individually and collectively. They have moved and breathed with us in a union that is creating peace, serenity, and excitement for this next step in our spiritual journey. And boy are we ready!

Everything we, as Nova Gaians, do – healing, creating, co-creation, teaching, channeling, living, partnership, union – everything we wish to embrace, is dependent upon being in, holding and living in joy and the full embrace of our divine sovereignty. Love and Joy are the umbrella and the holding basket within which all these activities rest. Over the past several years we have been gifted wonderful tools so that we can fulfill and participate in our role as co-creators of Nova Earth. And in the wide array of workshop sessions in our line-up, we are going to dance and play and apply those gifts and tools.

We are the pathfinders and showers of the way for others as humanity accepts the mantle of Nova Being. We have prepared for this next step for years; we have dreamed it and brought it into this reality. The time is now, the place is Nova Earth, and it occurs now because it is in Divine Timing and perfect alignment with Divine Mind, Heart and Will.

The Council has a great time planned for us full of channeling, healing, laughter, joy, sacred ceremony, and celebration. Preparations are in full swing, and now it’s time for me to let you know about your part.

Please look at and practice the daily preparation tasks. Read this agenda book from cover to cover – while you may recognize some of the material, pay attention because it has been infused and energized by the Council. When you read the material, anchor in your heart, and allow the information, healing, and frequency to penetrate your entire being.

Do not worry about whether you are ready to travel to Beyond the Horizon. Archangel Gabrielle has assured us that all who are gathering Nov. 20 and 21 will not only be heartily welcomed but reconstituted to a whole new frequency. And remember, the Council and I started working on you the moment your heart committed to join us.

I know you join with me to welcome our newly certified Council of Love Teachers. What a gift to have this much talent and wisdom available to us all. Their global debut marks a turning point in the work, availability, and accessibility to the Council’s teachings.

In addition to the expanded agenda and review of the workshop sessions, I have also attached a list of what to have handy during our time together. If you have any questions in the meantime, again, please email me – linda@counciloflove.com. The ground team and I are counting the days, and everybody is busy at work trying to ensure a great workshop.

From my heart to yours in Love, Laughter, Excitement and Joy!

Linda

The Council’s Invitation to Beyond the Horizon

In every Council of Love Gathering the Council selects certain channeled messages they want you to read and deeply absorb. There is a massive download and infusion of energy in each of these specific messages chosen for this Beyond The Horizon Gathering. The energies have been amplified even from the original transmission. This is part of your prep work – and a miraculous gift from the Council.

As you read the following three channels feel how the Mother and the entire Council have been preparing us all year to meet heart to heart to heart beyond the horizon.

Universal Mother Mary – Beyond the Horizon

Greetings, my beloveds, I AM Mary, I AM Mare’, Universal Mother, Divine Mother, Omniversal Mother, and I welcome you, each and every one of you whom I have beckoned to. Yes, in fulfillment of My Plan, Our plan, and your plan. We have been on this journey together forever, and we will be on this journey together forever. It does not end; it expands into the infinite and eternal wonder of creation.

And hence, beloved ones, I come here this day to invite you, to bestow upon you, to infuse you, to ignite you, and yes, with your infinite permission, to reset the heart of what you want, of your deepest, grandest, essential heart’s desires... which are your intentions.

I hear you every moment of every day, in your time and mine, the whispers of your heart, the entreaties of your heart. And I see, and I witness, and I watch your diligence and determination, your fortitude and compassion, and I hear your intentions. And sometimes they are very personal, as they should be, and very limited because it is a moment in time. So, it is, “Dear Mother, please help me with my son, with my daughter, with my back, with my head, with money, with perfection, patience, and impatience.”

What I come this day to do with thee is not to eliminate, or in any way restrict those intentions of your fulfillment of your life, and how you proceed in the grander fulfillment. But I wish you to come with me and expand your heart, your vision, your willingness to exceed what you thought as possible.

Many of you express intentions that are conditional... when there is peace, when there is money, when there is disclosure... when, when, when. And what you are doing is denying your birthright, your divine authority, and your capacity. I am not saying those things are not desirable or important, but you are not restricted, child, in any way, shape, or form.

I bring you today to the healing of the collective in every way... the healing of greed, of abuse, of feelings of insignificance. And I remind you, and I bestow and reawaken, reignite your divine authority, your sovereignty, your wisdom, your knowing, and your ability to create and co-create with me. You are not merely doing it for me. I can create what I desire... what is so important is you realizing that you are of My Being... therefore, you can create what you desire.

Yes, there are steps, but it all begins to move beyond the healing... no, not stopping or eliminating, but also beyond... to create what truly is a splendid, beautiful, glorious planet of love. There is no room in My Plan, or in your heart, in your environment, for anything less... anything less than love which includes peace, and joy, and wisdom, and fortitude, and compassion, and awe, and grace.

When you have that, when you and I co-create this, then we are on, and upon, and enjoying Nova Earth as I intended. That is why you are here, in form, on planet, in your ascension. It is not about departure, sweet ones, it is about full presence. I am here to assist you every single step of the way.

Think of it in this way... I am asking you; I am inviting you, and yes, at moments, I am imploring you to not only see the horizon but far beyond the horizon. Now, I am at the shore with you, and we have a beautiful boat... come with me. Now, I do not say to you, this day or any day, when you say, "Well Mother, I think I'll pack some water, some refreshments, some fruit, some sandwiches, and I will make sure I will bring a bailing can, and I will check the motor." Those are your desires and smaller creations, and they are worthy, and they are easy. But come, as we journey, and feel the sun upon your face, and feel my company warm your heart.

You know, child, that the horizon is ever-expanding. There is always more. What I want you to know this day, permanently anchored, is there is always more to you, to what you think, even dream, and imagine that you are capable of.

I am setting you free ... so, let us begin, and let us begin with love. Feel my love, and feel, as I reignite again your tri-flame and the Pink Flame of Intentional Impact. Farewell.

Universal Mother Mary's 2021 New Year's Message

Greetings, I AM Mary, I AM Mare', I AM Mother Divine, Mother of One, Mother of All, and certainly sweet angels, Mother of you, beloved child of my heart, of my essence, of my being. And yes, I welcome you, in your time and in mine, to this time of new beginnings, to this time of resurrection, to this time of ascension, to this time of completion and starting again... to which I will say hallelujah! For, has it not been a long journey, at times filled with glee and joy, and at times filled with desperation and the illusion of separation?

And first off, my beloved children, I would like to thank you for the 12-12 meditation that you are doing, and will continue to do, for you have no idea how powerful and what is being accomplished in this undertaking. But that is not why I have come this day. I have come, again, to speak to you, yes, of this year of 2021, of a new beginning. But let us talk about this... do not always be in such a rush. It is so important that you taste and savor the nectar of your experiences, whether you have categorized them as sad, or tragic, joyous, or fulfilled, it matters not. Within each moment of your, and my, infinite, eternal existence is the sweetness of being.

Now, often, always, I encourage you, not only to keep your eye on the horizon but to see beyond the horizon, to trust and to know, in your infinite, eternal being, what lies ahead. Not that you will live there, but that you will direct yourself and those you shepherd towards that horizon and beyond.

This year of 2021 is a year of transition. Yes, of new beginnings... but let me speak of this. So often, like forever, when I have addressed you and you have said to me, "Mother, which way do I turn? How do I know which way to go?" And I have issued, and I have guided, and I have pleaded, and I have stated, but I have never overruled your free will. But I have always said, "It is so simple... does it feel like love? Do the words, the personas, the actions, the energy... does it feel like love?"

Now, I have guided you, and I have held you in this past year, in my pause, for you to reconnect... not with what is of value to me, to us, but what is of value to you. To rediscover, to re-anchor, to reawaken, not only to the deepest yearnings of your heart but to the truth and the essence of your heart. So, now I expand you, not leaving this past year, or the past two hundred thousand million years behind, but building upon it.

Your next step, beloved, is not 'does it feel like love'... I ask you, "Are you the love? Are you, in your essence, in your expression, in your experiences in and out, are you the love?" And might I ask, "If you are not, why not? Why, in any realm, or reality, dimension, or universe, why would you step back and deny the essence of who you are?" That is the free will choice. That is the gift that I have given you, not only because I honor you, I respect you, I trust you, I know you, but because I know and trust myself and you are of me. How can it be otherwise? So, as you move forward in this time of transition, in this time of massive ignition, I ask you, "Are you the love?" Many times, throughout this year and the coming millennia, but particularly this decade, I will turn to you, and I will remind you, and I will ask you yet again, "Are you the love?"

What has happened in the world, in this world that you are occupying, my sweet Gi'Anna, is that the divisions, the sense of self-righteousness, of entitlement, of judgment has deepened, the divide had deepened. And that is why I have flooded, we have flooded, each of you with massive attunements and opportunities, energies of which you have never known the likes of. Previously your bodies could not hold this level of light, this level of love. But this sense that one is right, and one is wrong, that one is correct, and one is incorrect... I am bringing you, I am bringing this planet into the place of unity consciousness, into the place of Christ Consciousness, into the place of love, that you are the living, breathing embodiment of love and that cannot and will not include a sense of separation, of illusion. There is no space for it... not in my reality, and child, not in yours.

When you are the embodiment of love there is no desire to be separate; there is no desire to be above, or below; there is no desire for reprimand, or punishment, or judgment... only for reconciliation, for union – human and divine. How do you go about this? With the deepest humility; with the broadest gratitude; with the most practical application of compassion... not that you know better, but that you love.

Too often I hear, "Well, they do not understand, they do not know, they do not really know." When you come upon a drowning person, do you stand there and criticize them for not learning how to swim? Or do you extend your hand, your arm, the oar, to bring them to the place of safety; to wrap them in the blanket, the towel, of love; to bring them to the shore, the lagoon, where they may rest?

Some of you will say, "Oh no! Not transition, not more transition!" Dearest hearts let me be very clear... transition does not mean delay, in the same way that love does not mean permission.

You are the anchors, not merely of our new paradigm but of yours. The new grid of Gaia has been intact for some time; your new golden grid is intact and has been for some time. Now we will fire it. And know sweet ones, this is not simply a glowing ember, this is the passion of being the love, it is the excitement of... we have learned, we have integrated, we have anchored that infamous word. And with that anchoring, sweet angels of light, you are free to fly. If there is one expectation throughout my omniverse, it is that you will fly now. You are not grounded... you never have been. The biggest piece of my pause was so that you would remember how to fly, that you would remember that you have wings and that you can soar. And in this, with your feet on the ground, your heart connected with Gaia, and with me, that you will soar. And with the perspective of an eagle and a sparrow, you will create... not a world for me, but a world for us.

When I say 'us', yes, I include myself. I include the many masters who have and are returning, I include your star brothers and sisters. I include those who you believe have been arrogant and those who have lived in despair. I include and therefore you include all beings, whether it is an elephant, or a whale, yes, even a shark, or a spider. All are equally welcomed; this has never been a pecking order. I have created, and Gaia has created a place for my angels to play. So, in that sense of infinite joy, with all the tools that we have given you, what do you choose to create? I say it in a very broad way, Nova Earth created by Nova Gaians. But again, what does this mean to you? I do not, I will not dictate this. But I will tell you one thing, it does not mean running hither and yon, scurrying about. And it does not mean sitting on your behind. It means taking focused love, using the codes, sending, and bringing forth, in tangible and intangible ways, what your infinite heart desires.

Now, I speak of transition because transition is an adjustment phase; it is not a time of inaction, let me be clear... I have issued so many clarion calls for action – surely you have heard one of them. So, this is not about waiting, but this is about taking focused, laser-like action that is in total alignment, not only with us but with you.

If you are an artist and you paint on canvas, perhaps the canvas of the sky, you do not choose to make your creation brain surgery. Be clear, go back, reconnect, that is what I am telling you... reconnect with what you valued and come to know in that pause, and then bring it forth. And do this, not only individually, but as this circle of love, as my implementers, as the sweet beloveds of my heart.

So, in transition there will be bumps. But never-the-less, think of it in this way... you are constructing a new house, perhaps a new palace. Perhaps you are, in fact, constructing a family compound, and you have the plans, and you have ordered the stone, the wood, the trusses, the cement. And then, perhaps there is a delay in the delivery. Do you say, “Well forget it, I am not going to build my palace?” No. And perhaps the workers don’t show up one day and you say, “Well that’s that. I cannot do it!” No. Because you are practicing, you are demonstrating, you are illustrating patience and prudence and joy. “Oh! The delivery did not happen. Well, perhaps today I could just breathe air and sunshine and send love to war-torn areas while they find peace.” It does not mean that you give up. It means you hold the balance, and the brilliance, and the stillpoint, and the woosh. And you do this on behalf of yourself, on behalf of your family, your soul family, on behalf of all.

Yes, you have this saying that we have coopted... just do it! Well, I would add “buckle up and do it.” Do not look back. No, when I say to you to reconnect with what you have found in the pause, it is reconnecting, re-plugging into your heart, not looking back and resurrecting old grievances, old patterns, old behaviors. That is done. There is no room for it and those who attempt to hold on to that will be very sorely disappointed.

This is the new beginning. This is your Nova Earth and my Nova Earth, and sweet angels of light, you are ready. You say to me, “Well Mother, I am not sure. I’ve tried before. I don’t know if I have the strength left or the confidence.” Turn to me, turn to the mighty ones, turn to the guardian angels I have gifted you eons ago. Turn to your star family. Turn to each other. The key to being the embodiment of love is extending not only your heart but your hands... not in empty gestures but in ways that are kind and supportive and respectful, respectful of other people’s choices. So, when you extend your hand and your heart and the person says, “Thank you, and now I need to go on this different path”, you are not aggrieved, you are empowered, and you are in joy that they know the direction they must move.

Reconciliation does not mean all living on the same block, in the same city, in the same state, in the same country. It means celebrating the diversity. Why do you think I continuously create? I do not simply replicate... I create the new. And this is your next step. And I am with you every step of the way. It is exciting when you are building a new palace.

So, proceed sweet angels, proceed with confidence, with humility, and with unmeasurable joy. Go with my love and go, sweet angels, not only in peace but creating peace in all ways. Farewell.

Divine Mother ~ The Beauty and Truth of Who You Are

Greetings, I am Mother, known by many, known by many names, known by many labels. I am Mother of One and Mother of All, Mother of Omni and, beloved one, Mother of you.

You are coming to understand that I am of you, as you are of me, and that these silly attempts by human beings to make such divisions are meaningless. And it is not that they do so from any sense of malintent, but lack of comprehension and lack of understanding of their own importance, for they think in some ways very often that separation equals uniqueness. And to some extent that is true, but in so many ways uniqueness comes from similarity, from compatibility, from union and reunion, for what is old and ancient is new and revived.

That does not mean that I do not create what humans can think of as new energies, but we will set that aside for now because I come this day, not only as Mother but as your Mother, to embrace you, to encourage you, to incorporate you, to remind you of the beauty and truth of who you are – and, sweet angel, of the beauty and truth of what you are capable of, not only in what you have promised me, for that is a given, but in what you have promised yourself and what you have come to Earth to do at this time of fulfillment... not simply unfoldment, but fulfillment.

You have come of course to do my bidding but also to do your bidding, to have this experience, yes, of breakthrough, individually and most certainly collectively, but to know the glory – no, not in human definition – to know the glorious upliftment of fulfillment, of victory. And yes, victory is the word I use because so often during your day, during your weeks, during your years, I want you to not only think of but to feel, and to consider, and to celebrate your victories.

When the time had come for you to return to Earth again in this lifetime, during this momentous fulfilment, there was much playful, joyful discussion about what this particular incarnation would look and feel and taste like.

And you and we, in concert with your circle, have chosen, designed, this magnificent form in all its shining, lustrous brilliance – the human foibles and proclivities so that you would understand the human race... which in many ways is a foreign race to you... but also that the human race would understand you, because it is mutuality; it is the sense of unity, it is the sense of togetherness, quite literally, that is important in this redefinition of the experience of [being] ‘human’.

If you are distant, if you are separate – that illusion – then they will not hear you with their hearts, their minds, their souls, their bodies... and you will not have the experience that you and I and all of us have agreed to. It is not either/or that is old human, do-all thinking, which has led to the downfall of this collective human race. Yes, ego has been the Achilles heel, but never has it been my intent... or your intent, by the way... to not include a sweetness of personality and a desire for personal, human life.

What you are embodying, not only on my behalf but on your behalf, is balance. If there is one thing, if you wish to summarize how things had gone awry with this collective, it would be the loss of balance. And so, we re-establish this, we bring this to the forefront, and that means, beloved son, that you embody this balance.

Now, let me be truly clear with you, that does not mean that you fall into or investigate the lower vibrations of what humans have done... and do, by the way. But I am not encouraging you to lead the life of a monk and to go into the caves or the monastery. You see, even that pathway – as appropriate as it has been for some, at some junctures in what you think of as time – that pathway is based on a human assumption, that the human is not capable of balance unless removed from the main flow of life.

As I said, that pathway has served its purpose, but the intent – my Plan – is not for those on-planet and far beyond to live half-lives; it is to be spirit in form, enjoying the magnificence and the purity of Creation, mine, and yours. How I guide thee is not to shy away from being human, and also not to shy away from being divine! It is not, it cannot be, an either/or, that is a basic denial of the truth of your being.

Let us also be clear. What is really going to happen is you are being positioned, as you well know – and yes, what we want you to do is to have the experience of what you think of as the human engagement.

What you are doing, even as we are having this very important conversation, is you also keeping your eyes not only on the horizon but far beyond the horizon!

St. Germaine - Sign Your Declaration of Independence

—————→

The guidance from St. Germaine and from the Council today is to open our hearts bigger and broader than we ever have. So, how you do that... open your crown to allow this energy to enter you, the beautiful blue-violet flame, the scent of lilac, of lavender, the color of Siberian iris, and just sink into your heart as we begin...

Now, feel yourself repeating to yourself, or out loud this sweet little mantra of St. Germaine:

*I AM a being of violet fire
I AM the purity of God's desires
And he added this this morning:
I AM a being of violet fire
I AM the fulfillment of the Mother's desires
So, say it and go deeper into your heart:
I AM a being of violet fire
I AM the purity of God's desires
I AM a being of violet fire
I AM the fulfillment of the Mother's desires*

It's so important during these times of change that we fully remember, and anchor, and embody, and feel empowered, that in fact, we are the Mother's boots on the ground. That we are the ones, in form, on planet, as ascended beings, that we're bringing forth the Dream... and we know that if the Mother has a Dream that it's already fait accompli, it's a done deal.

And so, here we are at a time of such monumental, phenomenal, incredible... how many adjectives shall we use? ... we're on the edge of this shift. One of the things that the Council said in a reading, I think this week, was that we didn't have to look at this as jumping the Grand Canyon. That instead we could be in the middle of the prairies, we could be driving across Kansas, and there's just a slight dip in the road, a little hill, and we're on the brow of the hill. Now we're going down, and now we're going up. And as we've been told by the Mother so many times, we're not just looking to what's on the horizon, we're looking past the horizon. That's what the collective is counting on us for... not to just see what's there on the horizon but to really hold the vision, and be the vision, and the fulfillment of the vision of what lies beyond the horizon. We know this; we know it in our hearts and in the very core of our being, that's why we're here.

Greetings, I AM St. Germaine. You can call me whatever you want, for I have gone by many names, as you know, and lived in many centuries... yes, including the times of birth of this country called the United States of America. And I wish to speak of this today, not to ignore the rest of the beloved planet, because what I say that is applicable to this country is applicable to all nations everywhere... here and far beyond.

The channel has reminded you, and I have nudged her to remind you, that when the Mother dreams that is Her Creation. It is the intention, and the manifestation, and the stillpoint all at once, in the infinite, perfect moment of Creation. And my beloved friends, that is where you are at this moment. And yes, of course, I give you, I offer you, and I stand by you with my Violet Flame, with this I AM Presence.

I want to remind you of some things... you do not fight for freedom, you do not struggle for independence, it is your divine birthright, it is the essence of your divine authority. When this country of the United States has come to this time of declaration of independence, that was what was required... a declaration, a declaration that tyranny, oppression, was not acceptable. The dream for this country and for this entire planet is that it is a place of freedom, it is the living, the manifestation, the clarity, of divine authority, of creativity, of liberty, in the deepest meaning of that word, of that term, this small term that encompasses so much and that is a direct reflection of the Divine.

Now, has this plan gone awry? Oh yes, most certainly, because there has been a clinging... oh, I could give you the list... lack, limitation, death, disease – especially disease, – abuse of authority. But it is the paradigm, and it is the dream in every person's heart... that is what defines you as Nova Gaian, it is the reawakening of the dream. And you dream, and you insist, and you live in the freedom of your being, in your divine right authority to choose, not in domination, or interference with one another, or over one another. That will never work, it never has. You have plenty of history to demonstrate that!

Cruelty has never been an expression of the I AM, and neither is complacency. You cannot declare yourself as an ascending, ascended, being, and step back and say, "Oh, I don't want to be involved." I would say to you, "Then why are you here?" There are about a handful of beings that have literally been sent as intergalactic observers... a handful out of billions. Everybody else shared in the dream. Yes, even those that you discern went way off track... they are like the lost sheep, the lost lamb that Yeshua has always gone back and claimed.

Even in my life as Comte, there were many of you that were near and dear heart friends. We agreed on most things, but what I often found most stimulating was what I would call the straddlers, those who would sit on the fence, those who sometimes just liked a good argument or discussion. They were not recalcitrant in their opinions, but they wanted to have the mental, emotional discussion on why I would suggest proceeding in liberty and in equality.

Equality has been one of the greatest challenges of this planet, of the collective, since the beginning, since the fall of the Creator Race, since Atlantis, even Lemuria. And you see it in the arrogance and the lack of empathy, that those who wish to rule who consider themselves 'above' or superior. And you see it in those that have actually embodied and bought that they are less than. Now, all of you have had moments, situations, often with your family, when you have felt less than... and I thank the Mother/Father/One that you have let that go. But you recall that sense of desolation in that emotional, spiritual, physical moment. And you do not wish that for any who walk upon sweet Gi'Anna, who do not smell the blossoms, that do not smell the lavender because they are feeling so fearful, that they are hungry, and they are cold, they do not have shelter or food. That is not of love.

You are at the point in the Mother's Pause... which comes in waves... of deciding, not only beloveds what you value for you, for your beloveds, for your family, for your community, but what do you value for Nova Earth? It cannot work if some are cold and hungry. It cannot work if there are those that feel entitled to more. That is why I used to manifest precious gems, to share them, to throw them, to give them away. The Mother is not a stingy Quartermaster. Gaia is not reservedly hoarding her precious supplies. All are meant as angels, and humans, and star-seed, and earth-keepers to come to express and experience love. And that cannot fully happen if there is not divine authority freedom.

You, my beloveds, as we sit together throwing open your heart, not merely to walk in the lavender fields with me but to walk on the oceans, and the deserts, and the ridge of the highest mountain. You are here to love. Think of it in this way... if there is any impediment to love, you have the tools! Yes, think of it... recalcitrant emotions – and this belongs in every sector – fight fire with fire. Use my Violet Flame, I have given it to you time and time and time again, and I give it to you again today. Take it and write across the sky, the oceans, and on each person's heart that you encounter, write the LOVE and allow it to ignite, not abuse of authority but equality, and freedom, and justice, and fairness, and kindness, and compassion.

This is the world that you are creating. This is the world that we, as masters, come to walk with you upon again. This is the world your star brothers are co-creating with you through the delegations... even as we speak. It is not some distant future, it is not even next week, it is right now.

So, come and join me. Sign your Declaration of Freedom and celebrate, celebrate with me. Celebrate your divine authority and your divine right to choose. Claim your planet, claim your life, and we are here to assist in greatest joy, in frivolous and monumental excitement. I will meet you just beyond the horizon.

Information

We're the Council of Love, and we're looking to forward to seeing you!

You will be using Zoom Meetings to access the webinar. If you have never used Zoom, there are Instructions here and inside the Forum.

How to access the webinar

The two-day webinar will be held on Zoom Conference Meetings. Each session will have its own unique entry link. The links to the sessions can be found in the Beyond the Horizon Forum and in the full version of this agenda book.

Selecting a Session

The day begins with a Gathering Session at 10 a.m. Eastern. Everyone should start there. There will be a break at about 11 a.m. At that time, the Gathering Session will end and you will be disconnected from the Zoom Meeting. At about 11:15 a.m., Select one of the two sessions you want to attend at that time. Don't worry, all the sessions are recorded and you will get to see the session you missed at a later date.

After each session you will be disconnected. Take a break or lunch then come back to the Agenda Book and select the next session you want to participate in.

Stay Connected

If you find yourself lost, don't fret. We've got help waiting in the sidelines. If you can't find the log in, a session you want to attend, or lost a link, send an email to admin@counciloflove.com. Tell us how we can help and provide a phone number in case we need to call you.

JOY OF THE MEDICINE WHEEL WITHIN

Blossoming into Beauty with all our Relations

WITH MORNINGSTAR NELSON & TAM RANGLES

“The wheel was and is a direct map of ourselves, all of our relations, and all that is or is not.” Ghost Dancer
This is an experiential workshop intended to connect and deepen your connection to the sacred gifts of the Native American Medicine Wheel. Both Tam and Morningstar are steeped in this tradition and are so excited to heart share this experience with you.

Join us and experience the magic of the Medicine Wheel, feel the connection to Gaia and the Higher Realms. Welcome your blossoming into beauty with all our relations and kingdoms. Come and receive the gifts and wisdom the Council of the Ancient Chiefs and the entire Council of Love.

We invite you to come journey with us around the Medicine Wheel and anchor the 4 directions with Red Cloud, Geronimo, Cochise, Chief Joseph, and Sitting Bull. Come unite with Gaia and the Keepers of the Council Fire. Awaken your Medicine Wheel Within. Your past and future await you. AHO!

HOW DOES SHE DO THAT? PART 1

Manifesting Your Dreams Through The Divine Mother’s Creation Process

WITH ROB LOVELAND & SUE SCOFIELD

Our creations are not a matter of just asking heaven for it. YOU have a role to play! It’s what you were made for and why you are here NOW! You are a co-creator of the Universe, so it’s essential to understand how the Divine Mother does it. Learn the structured, intentional approach to manifesting your heart desires through her Creation Formula and the Creation Loop! This is not just a “study workshop.” It’s a hands-on experience, using meditation to put the process of Conscious Creation to work.

HOW DOES SHE DO THAT? PART 2

Manifesting Your Dreams Through the Divine Mother’s Creation Process

WITH MARTIN BEDOGNE & MONICA SEVERO

In Part 2 of this dynamic interactive workshop, we move from the personal application of the Creation process to focusing on coming together as Nova Gaians creating Global Unity Consciousness. In this New Normal the Mother invites us to co-create with Gaia, the kingdoms, the human collective, and all above and below to create a world that works for everyone. Deep meditation is an integral part of this workshop, as we get to work. Envision a better world and GO GLOBAL!

Second Stop: www.Universal-Internet.Love. Learn the steps to access and surf the universal internet to receive any information you desire!

Third Stop: Visit the Balance sites on the universal internet and receive downloads of the balance you need in your own life!

Traveling Back: Allow your downloaded gifts of Balance to come forward.

Landing: Grounding back into Gaia

Integration: Bring our gifts of Balance into physicality with a surprise group project!

Farewell: Leave with your gifts of Balance and your wings of Joy!

DIVINE GUIDANCE & INTUITIVE LISTENING

WITH LINDA DILLON, JOANN FOGARTY & ANTARA GREENE

After years in the incubator, the first Council of Love card deck, Sacred Inspirations, is born! Come and celebrate this creation with us!

So often our heart prayer is to not only hear or feel the guidance but to truly understand it when it is brought forth. How do we apply the esoteric teachings of the Council to our everyday practical lives? How do we translate what we intuitively know, hear, and feel into practice?

We want you – we invite you to come and play with us! We’re celebrating the unveiling of this incredibly powerful brand-new Council of Love Sacred Inspiration Deck! We’re excited to share the deck with you, talk about our creation process, choose cards and share our hearts on how we receive and listen to divine guidance through the lightest touch.

We are all seeking, wanting directional signs and inspirational guidance in a gentle and loving manner. This is your personal invitation to the opening gala – come let the cards talk to your heart!

ACCESSING HEAVEN: PRAYER, MEDITATION & RITUAL

WITH TOMAS KIANICKA, ROBIN HEDSTROM & JEWEL SCHROEDER

This is an experiential workshop on sacred communication. Heart speaking and heart listening are the keys to authentic living. Come and explore the sacred triad of prayer, meditation, and ritual - the how-to of accessing heaven! In this workshop we will practice heart speaking and heart listening as a vehicle for opening to greater “in-to-me-see” (intimacy) with our own and each other’s Soul as well as Heaven.

Come and join us as we create the sacred space for and through prayer, ritual and meditation - that sacred space of unity and love where it is safe to open your heart. Heart sharing is the core of this experiential session, where we will demonstrate and then practice the loving communication patterns of Nova Gaians.

As we enter the new realm of heart consciousness, this is the fundamental manner of how we will connect with anyone - in any way - about anything. And what is life, but connection? Come and embrace this sacred union adventure! Come experience the powerful, visceral, embodied felt sense of unity, safety, warmth, and trust that naturally occurs when our hearts align as one with the ONE.

From our loving hearts to yours, we invite you to join us in Sacred Union where all are embraced with Open Hearts as One Family of Love.

COSMIC BALANCE: MIND, BODY & SPIRIT

Essential Tools for Ascension

WITH TIZIANA PAGGIOLU

The Council of Love has guided us that the keys to heaven are love, trust, forgiveness; unity, connectedness, and balance. Balance is listed as the last key, the final element to obtaining and maintain the expression of our divinity above and below. Balance is the key that allows us to literally connect with heaven and earth. And Balance, my friends, is often the most elusive state to sustain.

All of us experience competing priorities with family, friends, careers, and our own biggest hopes and dreams. That has been especially true with the global environment of the past couple of years. With the vast changes taking place both within and without during this monumental shift into heart consciousness, Balance is key. But how do we maintain the harmony of body, mind and spirit consistently? How do we balance all the aspects and demands of our busy lives without feeling that we auditioning for a juggling act? How do we achieve, live and proceed in the joy and stability of Balance?

Come and join me as we do a deep passionate dive with interactive discussion of the how and whys of maintaining balance. As Council of Love Teacher, SpiritLife Coach, wife, mother, healer, cancer survivor who lives in a small Italian community rooted in family and tradition let me share the strategies and COL tools in how to obtain and maintain this sometimes-elusive friend Balance.

Join me for the practical tips and tools, along with lots of joy, fun, and heart sharing as we explore the essential Cosmic Balance of Mind, Body, and Spirit.

DEMYSTIFYING ASCENSION: FROM MOTHER’S WOMB TO MOTHER’S HEART

WITH ROXANNE SMITH & GENOVEVA COYLE

Where are you on the road to ascension...the road to claiming and living your divinity? Let us take your hand along that path so that it doesn’t seem so far beyond the horizon. How do you really know when you get there? Join us for this interactive workshop where we demystify the ascension process and share all of the keys. Together we will explore what ascension means to you personally. We will dispel the ascension myths as we examine our working approach to your ascension.

We call it AWE.

- A = Awaken to who you truly are
- W = Walk in the path of self-discovery toward achieving your full potential
- E = Embody your Divinity by living from your heart and co-creating in partnership with the Mother

It’s time to awaken to the beauty and truth of who we are as Divine instruments of love, walking the path of self and spiritual discovery, achieving your full potential. Come join us as we talk honestly, and heart to heart about beliefs, values, and the desires of our hearts. We’ll share how to release what no longer serves. We’ll explore how to come to know and embrace your soul design, purpose and Divine nature.

In our discussions we will talk about the challenges we all face in embodying our divinity and formulating an authentic sacred partnership with yourself and Mother/Father. We’ll share in a practical and esoteric way how we use the COL tools to shift from ego/ mind to heart-centered beingness. And finally, we will come together to embrace our indwelling spirit and our Divine Authority.

A full agenda filled with richness of gifts, growth and heart sharing. Come join us and discover your sacred self, and just how far you really are in your ascension journey!

GIFTS IN ACTION

Applying Council of Love Tools and Gifts in Daily Life

WITH PAUL BACKES

How would you like to return to your daily life after this conference and integrate what you learn? So often we attend a conference or weekend gathering like this and by Friday our daily lives have diluted what we had hoped to be lasting change. Start integrating COL tools into your daily life, for the times you can’t be in meditation.

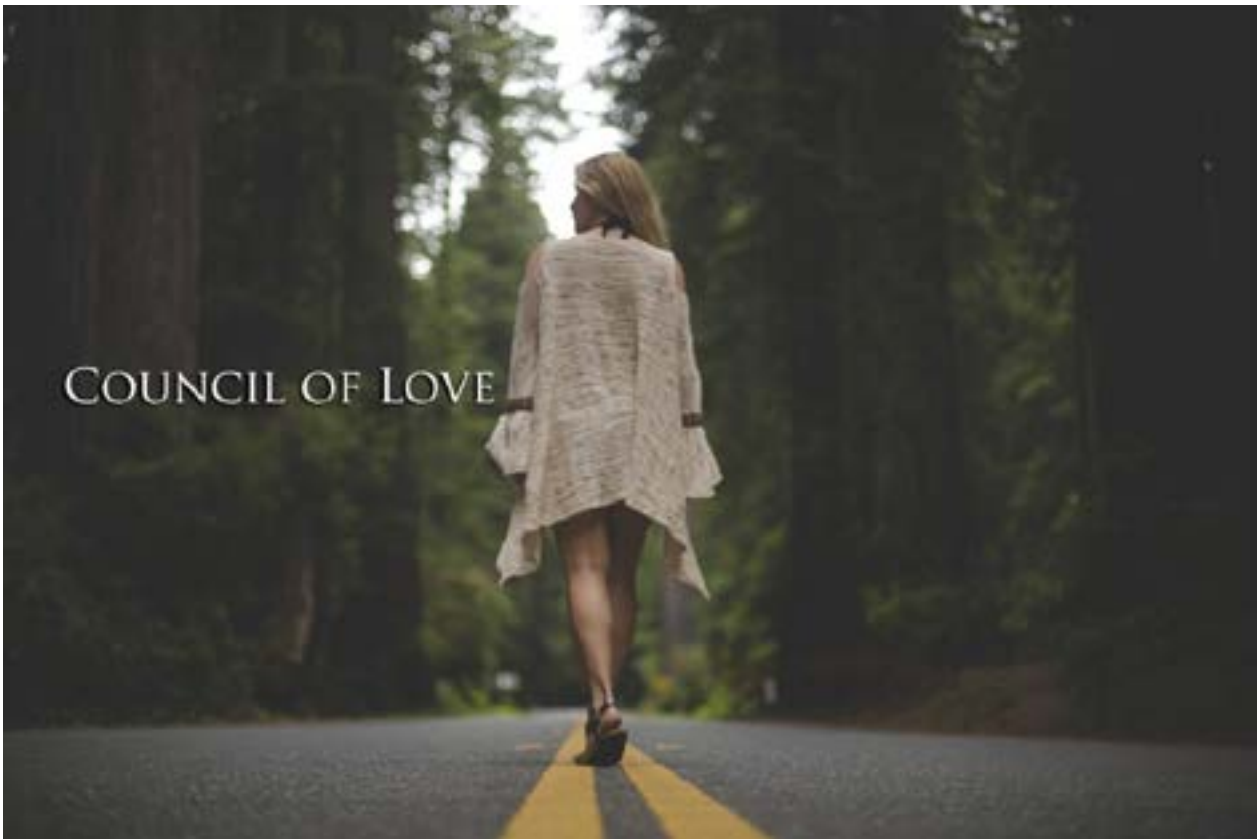

In this interactive session we are going to tackle “on the fly lightwork”. With the right intent, and a moment of still point (17 seconds), you can use these COL tools your way, in the moment, on the fly. You don’t have to do or say things in a predetermined way or follow exact procedures, or even be in the perfect meditative state. When are we ever in the ideal setting, anyway?

We’ll warm up by being clear about asking for and receiving. Your ask can be for help finding lost items; help locating things in a store; or help loosening jar tops or stuck bolts. We’ll condense prayers and key phrases and even use music to help you access and remember what is always and instantly available to you.

Come join us to learn and understand how using our divine authority and as a member of the human collective, we are the freewill gateway for the angels and helpers to come in and help. Invite and assign help to whatever problems you see in the world, as you see them.

Come and play with us as we open the COL toolbox with this simple straightforward but practical approach for daily living!

What to Bring

Even though our time together on Nov. 20-21 is virtual there are still items you want to make sure you have on hand.

- Make sure to familiarized yourself with Zoom (Instructions here). No need to be an expert but explore to the point that you are comfortable with the technology. Make sure your camera and mic are working – your tribe wants to see and hear you! There will be Zoom lessons posted on the Forum.
- Your agenda book – have the session links opened on your computer.
- Even though we are going virtual, several of the workshop sessions have you physically moving in various ways. Besides which you need to be able to get up and stretch so give yourself room to move!
- Sacred objects – it doesn’t matter if you are in your meditation spot or in front of your computer, you want to make sure that you set the sacred space. Have your favorite crystals or energy tools by you. Perhaps light a candle or even smudge beforehand. This is your sacred journey – make your space not only comfy but beautiful.
- Part of setting your sacred space is making sure you have this time for your sweet self. Let everybody sharing your home know that you are occupied and unavailable. Yes, it can be hard with children but maybe a sitter or a friend to cover for you?
- Dress comfy & casually; have a sweater or sweatshirt or shawl if you get cold while meditating. Layers are always a good idea. Remember, you get really hot when spirit comes into you and really cold when you exit to meet your friends in the ethers.
- For each day have lots of water and juice on hand. Have your lunches planned out and easily available to you during our two days together. Having a piece of fruit or chocolate handy is helpful in grounding if you need to do so.
- Kleenex – guaranteed you will need it!
- You will have chosen your sessions to attend live beforehand so jot down your questions, areas you want more info and guidance on. Be ready to join in the conversation.
- Your sense of humor & outrageous adventure
- Your willingness to trust, unite and create with All

Upcoming Council of Love Classes

This coming year there will be more Council of Love workshops offered than ever before!

This is the joy of the new cadre of Council of Love Teachers and SpiritLife Coaches. Our COLTs come from a broad spectrum of experience, each with their own unique gifts and talents who are ready, willing and, oh so able, to offer.

The COLTs have been through extensive teacher training for the past year and a half, as well as the intensive Ascended Self Master class the year prior. Most of our COLTs have been immersed in the COL experience and materials for years. They have anchored not only the treasure trove of COL material, but the sacred energies gifted directly from the heart of the Divine Mother/Father/One.

With this host of new Council of Love Teachers, we can deliver the highest quality of both virtual and in-person gatherings. Keep your eyes peeled for our upcoming courses – there is something for everyone on their spiritual journey.

Check out upcoming workshops either on <https://counciloflove.com> or <https://colspiritlifecoaching.com>

- The 13th Octave
